

Pavel Šturma is Professor and former Vice-Dean of the Faculty of Law, Head of International Law Dpt., Charles University, Prague. He has also experience as Senior research fellow, Institute of Law, Czech Academy of Sciences, Prague, and International civil servant, United Nations Office at Vienna (UNDCP). President of the Czech Society of International Law, Editor-in-chief of the Czech Yearbook of Public & Private International Law. Lecturer and visiting professor at various universities in Austria, France, Slovakia, etc. Member of the Permanent Court of Arbitration (The Hague). Elected member of the ILC (2012-2016), First Vice-Chairman (2013). Author and/or co-author of 16 books and more than 140 articles and studies in International and European law, published mainly in Czech but also in English and French, both in the Czech Republic and abroad.

The lecture and discussion will focus not only on general issues of proliferation of international courts and tribunals, including international criminal tribunals, but also on some issues of international investment arbitration and international environmental law.