The Ministry wishes to clarify the decision on visa abolishment for Czech Republic citizens as follows:

- This decision concerns all the passports, that is, the diplomatic, official and regular passports.
- According to Botswana laws all foreign nationals visiting Botswana are allowed a cumulative ninety days (90) days stay in the country per annum;
- The non visa requirement applies for any purpose of visit; business, official and tourist;
- In addition to a valid passport, all foreign nationals visiting Botswana should be able to demonstrate satisfactorily at the port of entry why they are visiting Botswana, who is hosting them and when they will be leaving the country.
