

Bassam Lahoud

“Czech Republic - 25 years later....”

An exhibition of photographs by the Lebanese artist, catching impressions from his visits to Prague and other Czech cities during the last 25 years which have passed since the democratic changes in former Czechoslovakia (the 1989 “Velvet revolution”).

Professor Bassam Lahoud:

Born in 1951 in Beirut.

Architect – restorer & urban designer. Photographer – reporter.

Professor at the Lebanese American University – Byblos & Beirut.

Chairman of “ESCWA Arts Council” at the United Nations.

Founder & President of the Lebanese House of Photography.

Founder member of “Prestige” Magazine.

Member of the International Jury of the World Press Photography, Lebanon Contest 1996

Member of the Franco– Lebanese Jury of the “Mois de la photo”, Lebanon Contest 1998

Member of the International Jury of “Les Jeux de la francophonie”, Photography Section, Ottawa – Hull, Canada, 2001

Member of the International Jury of Architecture at the International Seminar of Architecture of Camerino, Italy 2004.

His pictures are frequently published in the international and Lebanese media.

Exhibitions:

40 exhibitions in Lebanon, Tunisia (Tunis), USA (Houston & New York), France (Paris & Lille), Czech Republic (Prague), Syria (Damascus), Jordan (Amman), Germany (Frankfurt & Berlin & Erfurt), Italy (Camerino), Bulgaria (Sofia, Kustendyl, Plovdiv), Macedonia (Skopje), Qatar (Doha), UAE (Dubai).

Publications:

The Maronite Patriarchate – History and Mission 1996

The Greeks and the Phoenicians in Antiquity 2004

ŠKODA

CHATEAU
KSARA

LIGHT BOHEMIA

JUTA

výrobky s podpisem

Dr. Kamel and Mona Morkos