Subpart 1

Acquire Citizenship of the Czech Republic

Section 3

Citizenship of the Czech Republic shall be acquired:

a) By birth,
b) By determination of paternity,
c) By adoption,
d) By receiving a foundling status in the Czech Republic,
e) By naturalisation,
f) By declaration, or
g) In relation to the applicant entering institutional, foster, or another form of care (hereinafter only the „foster care“).
Subpart 2
Citizenship of the Czech Republic acquired by birth

Section 4

A child shall acquire the Czech citizenship by birth should at least one parent be, on the day of birth of the child, a citizen of the Czech Republic.

Section 5

A child born on the territory of the Czech Republic, who would otherwise become a stateless person (hereinafter only a „homeless child“) and whose parents are homeless and at least one of them has, on the day of the child’s birth, a permit to reside on the territory of the Czech Republic for a period longer than 90 days, shall also acquire the Czech citizenship.

Subpart 3
Citizenship of the Czech Republic acquired by determination of paternity

Section 6

A child, whose mother is not a citizen of the Czech Republic, shall acquire the Czech citizenship on the day of the final and conclusive court decision on determination of paternity of a Czech citizen.

Section 7

(1) A child, whose mother is not a citizen of the Czech Republic but is a citizen of another EU member state, the Swiss confederation or a country, which is a party to the Agreement on the European Economic Area (hereinafter only „EU member state“), or permanently reside on the territory of the CR or is homeless, shall acquire the Czech citizenship on the day when the parents make a concerted declaration of parents on the determination of paternity of a Czech citizen.

(2) A child, whose mother is neither a citizen of the Czech Republic nor a citizen of another EU member state, a person permanently residing on the territory of the CR, or a homeless person, shall acquire the Czech citizenship on the day when the parents make a concerted declaration of parents on the determination of paternity of a Czech citizen, should the parents file a proof of paternity to the Public Registry in the form of a report on a genetic paternal test issued by a court sworn expert pursuant to the Act on court sworn experts and interpreters.

1) Act No. 326/1999 Coll., on Residency of foreigners on the territory of the Czech Republic and on the amendment of selected other laws, as amended.

Subpart 4

Citizenship of the Czech Republic acquired by adoption

Section 8

A child may acquire the citizenship of the Czech Republic by adoption ruled upon by the Czech authorities and should at least one of the adoptive parents be a citizen of the Czech Republic. The child shall become a Czech citizen on the day when the decision on adoption becomes legally effective.

Section 9

A child adopted by a decision of an authority of a foreign country, at least one of whose adopters is a citizen of the Czech Republic, shall acquire the Czech citizenship on the day of final and conclusive decision on the adoption should the adoption be admitted in the Czech Republic pursuant to the Act on International private law.

Subpart 5

Citizenship of the Czech Republic acquired by a foundling on the territory of the Czech Republic

Section 10

A child under three (3) years of age found on the territory of the Czech Republic, whose identity was not determined, shall acquire the Czech citizenship on the day they were found, unless the authorities disclose, within six months after the child was found, that the child had acquired citizenship of another country. Should the day of finding be in doubt, the day of granting the Czech citizenship to the child shall be determined by the Ministry of the Interior (hereinafter only the “Ministry”) pursuant to proceedings initiated by the authorities or upon motion filed by the child’s legal representative or legal custodian.

Subpart 6

Citizenship of the Czech Republic acquired by naturalisation

Section 11

A decision on naturalisation shall be made by the Ministry of the Interior.

Section 12

There is no legal title to the citizenship of the Czech Republic.

Conditions of acquiring citizenship of the Czech Republic

Section 13

(1) An applicant for the citizenship of the Czech Republic may be naturalised should they be integrated in the Czech society, especially in terms of integration in a family or work environment, or social integration, and should they meet other conditions stipulated in Section 14.

3) Section 63, Act No. 91/2012 Coll., on International Private Law.
(2) Citizenship of the Czech Republic shall be denied to a person posing danger to its security, sovereignty, and territorial integrity, its democratic political system and lives, health or property of its citizens.

Section 14

(1) Citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant who has held, on the day of application, a permanent residence permit\(^1\) in the Czech Republic for an uninterrupted period of:

a) At least five (5) years,

b) At least three (3) years provided it concerns an applicant, who has been an EU member state citizen for a period which, together with the previous residency on the territory of the Czech Republic, counts at least ten (10) years.

The period of residency stipulated in letters a) and b) shall include any incidences of legal residency on the territory of the Czech Republic before reaching 18 years of age.

(2) The citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant who proves to have resided in the Czech Republic for at least half of the period stipulated in Article (1), letters a) to c). Short stays outside the Czech Republic, should individual short stays not exceed 2 consequent months or, for serious reasons, six consequent months, while a serious reason is understood to be primarily pregnancy and child delivery, serious illness, study, vocational training, or business trip, shall be calculated as part of the period.

(3) The citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant, who has reached the age of fifteen (15) and who:

a) Was never found guilty of a negligent crime and sentenced to imprisonment or found guilty of crime,

b) Has resided in the Czech Republic for a period of ten (10) years and in the country they are citizen of, unless it concerned an applicant, who was granted international protection in the form of asylum or supplementary protection\(^4\) in the Czech Republic, countries in which they resided in the last ten (10) years prior to the application for at least six (6) consequent months after reaching fifteen (15) years of age, found guilty of a negligent crime and sentenced to imprisonment or found guilty of crime.

The condition under letters a) and b) shall be met should the applicant be perceived as not sentenced or should they be sentenced in a foreign country for an act, which does not constitute a crime in the Czech Republic.

(4) The citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant, who proves knowledge of the Czech language. Applicants who manage to prove to have attended, for a period of at least three (3) years, an elementary, secondary, or university type school where the language of instruction was Czech, applicants under age fifteen (15) or older than age sixty five (65) on the day of application, or disabled or mentally challenged applicants, whose condition prevents them to learn the Czech language, shall be exempted from this rule.

(5) The citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant who shows an elementary knowledge of the Czech constitutional system and cultural, geographical, and historical facts pertaining to the Czech Republic. Applicants who manage to prove to have attended, for a period of at least three (3) years, an elementary, secondary, or university type school where the language of instruction was Czech, applicants under age fifteen (15) or older than age sixty five (65) on the day of application, or disabled or mentally challenged applicants, whose condition prevents them to get knowledge of the Czech constitutional system and cultural, geographical, and historical facts pertaining to the Czech Republic.

(6) The citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant who, in the past three (3) years has not substantially breached their responsibilities deriving from other legal regulations guiding entry and residency of foreigners on the territory of the CR\(^1\), the public medical insurance scheme, social insurance scheme, pension insurance scheme, employment, taxes, duties, levies, and fees, alimonies to a child residing permanently in the Czech Republic, or public law responsibilities to the municipality in which they are registered for residency, should these be responsibilities imposed by a municipality within the scope of its own powers.

(7) The citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant who proves their income and their source of income, document to have declared import of valuables when crossing the borders\(^5\), or have received wireless transfer of money from abroad and have paid due tax from their declared income unless, pursuant to a special regulation\(^6\), this tax be paid by another payer. The above facts shall be proven for the period of three (3) years prior to the application. Applicants under eighteen (18) years of age shall be exempted from this rule.

(8) The citizenship of the Czech Republic may be granted to an applicant who proves that their stay on the territory of the Czech Republic in the three (3) years prior to the date of application did not substantially and without any due reason burden the welfare system or the system of community care for persons suffering financial hardship. Burdening of the welfare system or the system of community care for persons suffering financial hardship shall be understood as the applicant’s major dependence on the welfare scheme or provisions from system of community care for persons suffering financial hardship, unless it concerned a person, who is not capable of earning money for their poor health, student or trainee status\(^7\), maternity or parental leave, or permanent care for a person, who is dependent on such care.

b) Is, on the day of application, under the age of eighteen (18).

(3) Conditions stipulated in Section 14 (4) and (5) may be waived for reasons deserving special concern.

(4) Conditions stipulated in Section 14 (6) may be waived should the applicant be a permanent residency permit holder and has removed the damage caused or has made steps to remove such damage.

(5) Conditions stipulated in Section 14 (8) may be waived for reasons deserving special concern, i.e. primarily in the case of applicants, who are homeless were granted international protection in the form of asylum or supplementary protection in the Czech Republic.

Section 16
Granting of the citizenship of the Czech Republic for the reasons of significant benefit to the Czech Republic

(1) The Ministry may grant the citizenship of the Czech Republic to an applicant, who has a permanent residency in the CR and whose citizenship of the Czech Republic would be of substantial benefit to the Czech Republic for the reasons of the applicant’s capacity in science, education, or sports, or should it help the Czech Republic fulfil its international obligations, or should it be in the public interest of some kind. The applicant may not meet conditions stipulated by Section 14, with the exception of condition stipulated by Section 14 (3).

(2) The applicant shall present a document issued by one of the ministries or another central public authority, the Office of the President of the Czech Republic, a public or private institution of higher learning, or a public research institute attesting the reason for granting the Czech citizenship in line with Article (1) above; the applicant shall submit neither the document pursuant to Section 19 letter g) nor documents pursuant to Section 20.

8) Act No. 115/2006 Coll., on Registered partnership and on amendment of selected other laws, as amended.
8) Act No. 115/2006 Coll., on Registered partnership and on amendment of selected other laws, as amended.
9) Act No. 2/1969 Coll., on Ministries and other central bodies of the Czech Republic, as amended.
Procedure of application for citizenship of the Czech Republic

Section 17

An application for the Czech citizenship shall be submitted in person to the competent regional authority, applicants in the Municipality of Prague shall submit their application to the respective municipal authority listed in Appendix 1 hereto (hereinafter only the „regional authority“) competent in respect of the place of permanent residency of the applicant.

Section 18

(1) A married couple may file a joint application for the citizenship of the Czech Republic and may include their children.

(2) Should the application for the citizenship of the Czech Republic be filed by one parent only, a child may be included to the application solely upon written consent of the other parent bearing a notarized signature of the respective parent. No notarized signature shall be required, should the respective parent express their consent and sign the application in person before the administrative authority to which the application is filed. The authorities shall not seek consent of the other parent should they be deprived of parental responsibility, their exercise of parental responsibility be limited, or withheld, should their residence, in case they live outside the Czech Republic, be unknown, or should they have deceased.

(3) Parents, or one parent, may file a separate application for the Czech citizenship on behalf of their child. Should such application be filed by one parent only, they may do so solely upon written consent of the other parent bearing a notarized signature of the respective parent. Under conditions stipulated in Article (2), the authorities shall seek neither consent of the other parent nor a notarized signature of the respective parent. Should both parents have deceased, have been deprived of their parental responsibility, their exercise of parental responsibility be limited or withheld, or should their residence, in case they live outside the Czech Republic, be unknown, an application for the Czech citizenship on behalf of the child may be filed by the child’s legal representative or legal custodian. The legal custodian shall attach to the application a copy of the final and conclusive decision on their appointment.

(4) Applicants wishing to file an application for the Czech citizenship pursuant to Section 16 shall file neither a joint application of a married couple nor an application including children.

(5) An application for the Czech citizenship for a minor over fifteen (15) years of age shall be accompanied by their consent bearing a notarized signature of the minor concerned. No notarized signature shall be required, should the respective minor express their consent and sign the application in person before the administrative authority to which the application is filed.

Section 19

Except for the documents required pursuant to the Code of Administrative Procedure, applicants for the Czech citizenship shall make it clear in their application why they wish to apply for a waiver of conditions to grant the citizenship of the Czech Republic. To the application for the Czech citizenship, the applicants shall attach the following:

a) Their birth certificate,
b) Their marriage certificate or their civil partnership certificate, should the person have entered into a marriage or a legally registered civil partnership (hereinafter only the "partnership"), a divorce certificate, or a certificate of dissolution or annulment of a civil partnership,

c) Their divorce certificate or a certificate of dissolution or annulment of a civil partnership should the marriage have been divorced or should the civil partnership have been dissolved or annulled,

d) The death certificate of their deceased spouse or civil partner,

e) An excerpt from the Register of Criminal Records or another document of equal information value issued by a competent court or administrative authority of a foreign country or another document proving that the applicant has no criminal record under Art. 3 letter b) or, should it concern a foreign country where the applicant had resided in the past ten years only occasionally or a foreign country, which does not issue or has refused to issue an excerpt from the Register of Crimes or an equal document (hereinafter only the "a certificate of probity"), a solemn declaration of the applicant’s personal integrity; such documents shall be no older than six (6) months,

f) A Curriculum Vitae (CV) in a text form and in the Czech language, in which the applicant shall outline relevant data pertaining to the stay in the Czech Republic, including information on the length of foreign trips during the residency in the Czech Republic, jobs or other gainful activities on the territory of the Czech Republic or study in the Czech Republic, and family and social life,

g) A certificate showing that the applicant had successfully passed the Czech language test and the test of knowledge of the Czech constitutional system and cultural, geographical, and historical facts pertaining to the Czech Republic taken for the purposes of the Czech citizenship procedure (hereinafter only the "language and facts test") or certificates proving that the applicant attended, for a period of at least three (3) years, an elementary, secondary, or university type school where the language of instruction was Czech or a proof of physical or mental disability, which prevents the applicant from learning the Czech language or getting knowledge of the Czech constitutional system and cultural, geographical, and historical facts pertaining to the Czech Republic, unless it concerned an applicant under fifteen (15) or over sixty five (65) years of age.

Section 20

(1) To the application for the Czech citizenship, the applicant shall also attach the following:

a) Documents proving residency of the applicant on the territory of the Czech Republic and foreign countries,

b) Clearances, no older than 30 days, certifying that the applicant has no outstanding debt neither with the Tax authority of the Ministry of Finance of the Czech Republic nor with the Customs office of the Czech Republic, with the exception of debt with extended maturity or payments of which will be made by instalments.

(2) The applicant shall also attach documents proving sources of their income used to cover their living costs in the Czech Republic, primarily the following:

a) A confirmation that the applicant receives retirement, disability or other pension,

b) Documents confirming their spouse’s or their partner’s income, should they be dependent on such income,

c) A confirmation of income from abroad.
(3) An applicant who has been or was employed in the Czech Republic, shall attach the following:

a) A confirmation of employment including information on their income,
b) Job contracts, confirmation of employment, or other documents showing gainful activities of the applicant in the Czech Republic in the past.

(4) An applicant, who studies or studied in the Czech Republic, shall attach the following:

a) A confirmation of study,
b) The last school certificate or other documents proving their student status.

Section 21

(1) The regional authority shall, in cooperation with the applicant, complete a questionnaire attached to the application and send it, within 30 days after the date of application, together with the application and documents attached, its own opinion, and the opinion of the local authority of the municipality, where the applicant resides permanently to the Ministry; for the Questionnaire, see Appendix No. 2 hereto.

(2) Both the local authority’s and the regional authority’s opinions shall contain information concerning compliance of the applicant with conditions of granting the Czech citizenship, both the local authority and the regional authority should have enough entries at their disposal to evaluate such compliance.

Section 22

(1) Should the Ministry be in doubt about the correctness of data contained in the documents presented or should such documents not be sufficient enough for the purposes of evaluating the application concerned, it may request information from other central public bodies, regional bodies, or a health insurance company, which are required to provide such information should it be in their possession.

(2) To prove compliance with the condition under Section 14 (3), letter a), the Ministry shall, pursuant to a special legal regulation\(^{11}\) request an excerpt from the Register of Criminal Records, should it concern an applicant over fifteen (15) years of age. The request for an excerpt from the Register of Criminal Records and the excerpt from the Register of Criminal Records itself shall be made electronically by means allowing for a remote access.

(3) The Ministry shall request, to an application for granting the citizenship of the Czech Republic, filed by an applicant over fifteen (15) years of age, an opinion of the Police of the Czech Republic and the intelligence services of the Czech Republic. Should it be disclosed, based on the opinion of either the opinion of the Police of the Czech Republic and/or the intelligence services of the Czech Republic containing secret information, that the applicant poses danger to the security of the Czech Republic, its sovereignty and territorial integrity, its democratic political system and lives, health or property of its citizens, the reasoning of the decision shall solely state that the application was declined because of danger posed to the security of the Czech Republic.

\(^{11}\) Act No. 269/1994 Coll., on the register of Criminal records, as amended.
Section 23

(1) The Ministry shall decide on granting the citizenship of the Czech Republic no later than one hundred and eighty 180 days after the day of receiving the application.

(2) A decision in an appellate procedure against the negative decision on an application for the citizenship of the Czech Republic shall be issued by the Minister no later than one hundred and twenty days (120) after the date of appeal.

Section 24

(1) An applicant whose application for the citizenship of the Czech Republic had been accepted shall receive from the Ministry a certificate of granting of the Czech citizenship instead of a copy of a written decision. In such case, the decision on granting of the Czech citizenship shall come into force on the day stipulated in Section 27 (1).

(2) The Ministry shall, without delay, inform the regional authority of the citizenship of the Czech Republic granted.

Section 25

Should the Ministry deny the application for the citizenship of the Czech Republic, the applicant may file a new application no earlier than two (2) years after the date of force of the negative decision. This shall not apply, should the applicant be, on the date of the negative decision, a minor or should they comply, in the meantime, with the condition pursuant to Section the citizenship of the Czech Republic 14, the failure to comply with was the reason for the denial of the application.

Section 26

Judicial review

The decision to deny the citizenship of the Czech Republic under Section 22 (3) cannot be subjected to a judicial review.

Section 27

Citizenship Oath

(1) The applicant for the citizenship of the Czech Republic shall become a Czech citizen on the day of their Oath of Citizenship, on the day of force of the decision on waiving the Oath of Citizenship, or on the day the legal representative of a child under fifteen (15) years of age received the decision on granting of the Czech citizenship to such child.

(2) The Oath of Citizenship shall be the following: „I hereby solemnly declare my loyalty to the Czech Republic and promise to comply with its Constitution and to obey the Czech law“.

(3) The Oath of Citizenship shall be taken by applicants over fifteen (15) years of age.

(4) The Oath of Citizenship shall be taken publicly and ceremonially before the Director of the regional authority, in the municipality of Prague before the secretary of the municipal authority of the competent municipal district listed in Appendix 1 hereof or before an appointed person. The Oath of Citizenship may be, for reasons deserving special concern, taken abroad before the Director of the embassy or a consular office of the Czech Republic, with the exception of consular offices headed by consuls honorary (hereinafter only the „diplomatic mission“) or a person appointed by the consul honorary.

(5) The applicant may take the Oath of Citizenship at the latest twelve (12) months after the date of receiving the invitation to take the oath. Should the applicant fail to take the Oath of Citizenship within this period, the Ministry shall issue a decision to terminate the citizenship procedure and shall withdraw the decision on granting the Czech citizenship to the applicant.

(6) The Ministry may, for reasons deserving special concern, waive the duty to take the Oath of Citizenship.

Special provisions pertaining to acquiring the citizenship of the Czech Republic

Section 28

(1) The Ministry shall grant the citizenship of the Czech Republic to a child, whose mother is neither a Czech citizen nor a citizen of another EU member state or a homeless person based on a concerted declaration of both parents on paternity of a citizen of the Czech Republic, unless such determination of paternity was made solely for the purpose to get a permit for the mother and the child to reside on the territory of the Czech Republic or to abuse the welfare scheme in the Czech Republic. To determine, whether the determination of paternity was made solely for the above purpose, the Ministry shall primarily focus on whether the father, whose paternity had been determined:

a) Lives together with the child in a household or keeps in regular contact with the child,
b) Takes part in the child’s upbringing, and
c) Pays alimony.

(2) An application for the citizenship of the Czech Republic pursuant to Article (1) may be filed by the child’s legal representative or legal custodian within a period of one (1) year after the day when the parents made a concerted declaration of parents on the determination of paternity of a Czech citizen, or, should paternity had been determined prior to the child’s birth, within one (1) year after the child’s birth. The applicant may fail to meet conditions pursuant to Section 14. Provisions of Sections 19 and 20 shall not apply.

(3) Should the application be filed by one parent only, it can be done solely upon written consent of the other parent bearing a notarized signature of the respective parent. No notarized signature shall be required, should the respective parent express their consent and sign the application in person before the administrative authority to which the application is filed. The authorities shall not seek consent of the other parent should they be deprived of parental responsibility, their exercise of parental responsibility be limited, or withheld, should their residence, in case they live outside the Czech Republic, be unknown, or should they have deceased.

(4) The application shall be filed to the Ministry or any regional authority. The regional authority shall send the application, within thirty days after the day of application, to the Ministry. The application may also be filed abroad to a diplomatic mission, which shall send it, within thirty days after the day of application, to the Ministry together with its opinion. The opinion shall be used similarly to Provision Section 21 (2), The legal representative or legal custodian of the child shall attach to the application a questionnaire in which they outline the identification data of the child and parents, data pertaining to the declaration of paternity, and other facts which may be decisive for the assessment of the application; for the questionnaire, see Appendix 2 hereto. The legal custodian shall attach to the application the final and conclusive decision on their appointment.

(5) The statutory period for a decision of such application shall be sixty (60) days after the date the Ministry had received the application.

(6) Pursuant to the application, the Ministry shall seek opinion of the local authority at the place of permanent residency of the child and the child’s parents, the Police of the Czech Republic, and the Office for social and legal protection of children (OSPOD). Provision of Section 21 (2) shall be used accordingly.

(7) During the application procedure and provided that paternity of a citizen of the Czech Republic had been determined, the respective child’s stay on the territory of the Czech Republic shall be considered a permanent residency

(8) The child shall become a Czech citizen on the day the child’s legal representative or legal custodian receive the certificate of granting the citizenship of the Czech Republic to the respective child.

Section 29

(1) The Ministry shall grant the citizenship of the Czech Republic to a child, who is born on the territory of the Czech Republic and does not receive, at birth, the citizenship of one of the parents and whose at least one parent holds, on the day of the child’s birth, a permit to stay on the territory of the CR for a period longer than ninety (90) days.

(2) An application for the citizenship of the Czech Republic pursuant to Article (1) may be filed to the Ministry by the child’s legal representative or legal custodian. The applicant may not meet conditions pursuant to Section 14. Provision of Section 19 and 20 shall not apply.

(3) Should the application be filed by one parent only, it can be done solely upon written consent of the other parent bearing a notarized signature of the respective parent. No notarized signature shall be required, should the respective parent express their consent and sign the application in person before the administrative authority to which the application is filed. The authorities shall not seek consent of the other parent should they be deprived of parental responsibility, their exercise of parental responsibility be limited, or withheld, should their residence, in case they live outside the Czech Republic, be unknown, or should they have deceased.

(4) The citizenship of the Czech Republic pursuant to Article (1) above shall not be granted to a child who became homeless as a result of the fact, that their parent failed, without any serious reason, to contact the respective authorities in the country they are a citizen of and take steps necessary for the child to be granted citizenship of that country. Should the parent have received, in the period when such steps could have been taken, international protection in the Czech Republic in the form of asylum or supplementary protection, such fact shall be perceived as a serious reason pursuant to the first sentence above.

(5) The child shall become a Czech citizen on the day the child’s legal representative or legal custodian receive the certificate of granting the citizenship of the Czech Republic to the respective child.
Section 30

(1) The Ministry shall grant the citizenship of the Czech Republic to a physical person over three (3) years of age found on the territory of the Czech Republic whose identity cannot be determined for their lack of cognitive skills or disability and should it not be revealed, within six (6) months after the day they were found, that they had been granted citizenship of another country. The physical person may fail to meet conditions pursuant to Section 14. Provisions of Section 19 and 20 shall not apply.

(2) The application to grant the citizenship of the Czech Republic to a foundling found on the territory of the Czech Republic shall be filed to the Ministry by the legal custodian of the respective physical person. The legal custodian shall attach to the application the final and conclusive decision on their appointment. The application may also be filed to any regional authority. The regional authority shall send the application, within thirty days after the day of application, to the Ministry. The Ministry may also commence the procedure on its own official capacity, should it become aware of a person who may beyond reasonable doubt acquire the Czech citizenship as a foundling pursuant to Article (1) above.

(3) The Ministry shall request opinion of the local authority at the place of residency of the physical person concerned and the opinion of the Police of the Czech Republic. Provision of Section 21 (2) shall be applied accordingly to the opinion.

(4) The physical person concerned shall become a Czech citizen on the day their legal custodian receive the certificate of granting the citizenship of the Czech Republic to the respective person.

Subpart 7
