Prague, 2 July 2020

Your Excellency,

Allow me to wholeheartedly congratulate you on your reappointment as the Prime Minister of Mongolia. I highly appreciate the good and friendly relations between our countries and I am ready to cooperate with you on their further development in all areas of common interest.

I am pleased to note that the traditionally close relations between the Czech Republic and Mongolia are characterized by a considerable interpersonal dimension. The significant Mongolian community living in the Czech Republic creates a natural cultural bond between our countries and Mongolian workers have always been desirable employees of Czech companies. One of the traditional and widely popular areas of the Czech – Mongolian cooperation is the renewal of the population of the last species of wild horse, Przewalski's horse, in the wild nature of Mongolia.

It was with respect that I followed Mongolia responded very early to the threatening pandemic of COVID-19 disease, thus avoiding a high number of infected and victims. I believe that thanks to our mutual cooperation and support, we will be able to manage the current unprecedented global health challenge and enjoy the full scope of our ties once again. I am convinced that we will be able to take advantage of the opportunities offered to us in the areas of agriculture, trade or energy.

Let me also to take this opportunity to congratulate you on the upcoming national holiday which commemorates the establishment of independent Mongolia. I wish you and all the citizens of your country good health and much success.

Your Excellency, please accept once again my congratulations on your reappointment as the Prime Minister of Mongolia. I wish you a lot of strength in this demanding and responsible work and I look forward to continuing our fruitful cooperation.

Sincerely

His Excellency
