

EUROPEAN VALUES

Protecting Freedom

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY
AT THE EUROPEAN VALUES CENTER FOR SECURITY POLICY

INTERN WITH ANALYTICAL FOCUS ON DISINFORMATION IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA

SPECIFICATION:

- Engaged in joint and independent projects with the EVC Balkans Watch team;
- Providing project assistance on a joint international project between Zashtu Ne and EVC;
- Contributing to the execution of Balkan-related project activities;
- Affording research assistance to the Balkans Watch Team;
- Preparing research articles or report which will be published by EVC.

WHAT WE REQUIRE:

- Written and spoken fluency in English and Bosnian;
- Citizenship of Bosnia and Herzegovina;
- Flair for writing;
- Demonstrable academic or professional focus on Western Balkans and disinformation campaigns;
- Knowledge of European media and institutional environments is an advantage;
- Study in a relevant undergraduate program at an accredited university and/or pursuing a degree in security and strategic studies, political science, history, international relations, law and other related;
- Time commitment up to 20 hours per week.

WHAT WE OFFER:

- Two-month paid internship with the prospect of long-term cooperation;
- Recognition of the internship as a required practice;
- Potential cooperation with international and Czech expert communities;
- Work with a young and motivated team at a dynamic, results-driven organization;
- Space for personal development under experienced supervision in political and public policy analysis
- Flexible cooperation exclusively on an online basis.

Deadline for applications: November 11, 2020

CONTACT:

Klára Veverka

Deputy Director for Operations

klara.veverka@europeanvalues.cz

+420 773 099 220

MORE INFORMATION WWW.EUROPEANVALUES.NET/JOIN-OUR-TEAM/